

Organisations in Partnership

If you feel you need help to remain in your home, there are a number of agencies in this area that deliver services to support you and your family. These agencies are funded to deliver home support services, and they work together to provide the best possible outcome for you.

You can receive services from several providers, or one specific provider depending on which you prefer, it's your choice.

There are several home support agencies in this region including; Dandenong and District Aborigines Co-operative, mecwacare, City of Casey and City of Greater Dandenong.

These home support agencies provide a range of services with the aim of assisting Elders, people with a disability & their carers to remain active & supported in their home & community environments.

Services Include:

Around the home:

Working with you to keep your house clean and safe and helping you with basic maintenance tasks inside and out.

Eating Well:

Helping you to eat well by assisting you with shopping, working beside you to prepare meals or providing delivered meals.

Self-care:

Working with you to manage personal tasks such as having a shower and getting dressed.

Out and About:

Connecting you with an interest group or social opportunities, helping you get to local places you want to go.

Health & your Wellbeing:

Service providers can help you access a range of professional services such as nursing, physiotherapy, occupational therapy and podiatry in your home or at a centre, if needed.

Respite Care:

If you are caring for an Elder or a person with a disability, you may be able to receive Respite Care so you can take a break. Respite can be provided in the home or out at an activity.

Access & Support:

This service assists people who have diverse needs and who experience difficulties finding services or accessing services they need on a short term basis.
